Certified Investment Supporter

April 29-30
May 26-27

Oslo
2025

Financial
Training Partner A/S

Practical Information

Who should participate?

You probably work in back- or middle office, work with IT-systems, as an accountant, with legal advice or internal audit in the financial sector. The education will enable you to understand the Norwegian financial market and the instruments that are traded there.

Content

The education consists of two modules of two days each. Between the two modules, you will be asked to read relevant material and solve exercises. After the final module you have the possibility to take an exam to become a Certified Investment Supporter.

If you want to take the Course Online

You can also take the course online. This way, you can choose when to take the course and at what pace. It is also possible to take individual modules online. Read more at www.FinancialITP.com

”All in all a very good course. It covers several topics in an extensive manner. Excellent teacher, took time to explain complex concepts.”

Nicola Miori, Euronext
Introduction to the Financial Markets (Module 1)

”A good introduction that is relevant for my daily work. I got a deeper understanding of the different instruments and how they work. The instructor is easy to understand, motivating to listen to and had a good knowledge.”
